

Name of Student Chapter: FAMT ASHRAE student Chapter

Name of Registered Faculty Advisor: Prof. Hemant Vasant Chavan

Name of Department Faculty Advisor: Prof. Sachin S. Gurav

Name of Student Coordinator: Mr. Rushikesh Govind Dale

Objective with brief description:

The American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE) is a global professional association seeking to advance heating, ventilation, air conditioning and refrigeration (HVAC&R) systems design and construction and was established in 1894. Today ASHRAE has more than 50000 members worldwide. ASHRAE India chapter is established in 1990. FAMT ASHRAE Student chapter is formed with following objectives:

1. To guide students in pursuing a career in the field of heating, ventilating, air conditioning and refrigeration on international level.
2. To impart Education in the fields of Air-Conditioning, Refrigeration and Allied Sciences by conducting Training Courses, Workshops, Seminars.
3. Inculcating interest in the fields of refrigeration, air conditioning and ventilation amongst the students.

Activities regularly conducted / planned to conduct:

1. Interaction with industry professionals (Networking)
2. International HVAC Design Competition
3. Career assistance
4. Industrial visit
5. Industrial workshop
6. Seminar and expert lecture, Technical Talk
7. K12 social activity in schools.

Tangible benefits to the students:

1. Free ASHRAE Journal and Insights newsletter providing the latest industry cutting edge technology information.
2. Discounts on ASHRAE Books & Publications
3. ASHRAE society Scholarships
4. Undergraduate program Equipment Grants
5. Fee Concession in Local ASHRAE Chapter programs such as workshops