Best Project Award Competitions 2018-19

Research Development & Consultancy Committee of Finolex Academy of Management & Technology, Ratnagiri conducted two separate Department wise Best Project Award Competitions 2018-19 for Final Year students and for the students of First, Second and Third Year.

The competitions were coordinated by the core members of RDCC at Department level through the Department RDCC Representative. The main motto of the competition was to enhance the quality of projects by students and to motivate them for innovative and research based projects. Further, it is expected that such competition will lead to creation of research culture in the institute. The students also learnt to work in a team and to compete with a team spirit which is in-line with institute's mission as "To inculcate in students the culture of Play Hard and Play Fair".

62 Project teams of Final Year students and total 21 Project Teams of Students from first to third year Engineering participated in the Department wise Best Project Award Competition. As a part of motivation in achieving the goals of the competition, the institute awarded the cash prizes to the First, Second and Third rank holders per departments to the project teams after thorough evaluation of each project by a panel of judges.

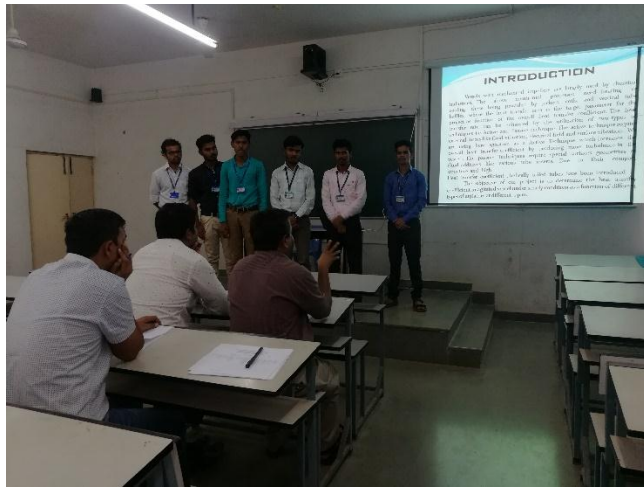

Research Development & Consultancy Committee received the support, guidance and motivation from Dr Kaushal Prasad, Principal, to conduct the Department wise Best Project Award Competitions 2018-19 successfully. Dr Shashikant S Goilkar, Dean, Research and Development took efforts as Coordinator along with the Core members of RDCC as Co-coordinators and department RDCC members to conduct the competitions smoothly.
